Year 5 Half Term Review

23.10.26

What a jam-packed and exciting first half term Year 5 has had! Alongside working hard in their learning, the children have enjoyed some fantastic experiences, special visitors and exciting opportunities.

We were delighted to welcome Paul, who shared his personal experiences of the Windrush with the class to honour 'Black History Month'. The children learnt so much from hearing his story, and he also shared some brilliant advice about the importance of learning and making the most of every opportunity.

We also had a wonderful trip to Balham Library to meet author Eve Wersocki-Morris, who introduced us to her book Clem Fatale. The visit was full of fun, and some of our budding actors even took to the front to bring parts of the story to life! It was a brilliant opportunity to celebrate reading, creativity and the joy of getting lost in a good book.

Well done, Year 5, for completing your first half term in Year 5. We look forward to seeing what the next half term brings!
